Teaching learning and Evaluation

TMAE'S COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, GANGAVATHI. Student's satisfaction survey regarding Teaching - Learning Process

2019-2020

One of the major concerns from academics is around the sustainability of delivering the goods and services based on the feedback from stakeholders. Scanning of feedback from different group provides an opportunity to realize our strength and weakness and allow us to modify or reform it, so that outcomes are more explicit in response to the feedback. Our institute seizes the opportunity to craft and design the system to suit the demands of the stakeholders.

1. Student's satisfaction survey

Students are important stakeholders and their feedback plays a significant role in the revision of the curriculum. For the academic year 2019 to 2020. We were asked 20 questions about different areas like Curriculum, Evaluation, Teaching and Facilities of the college. We have collected more than 80 teacher trainee's feedback for the academic year 2019 to 2020.

Students have appreciated the course content and the clarity in the text materials were rate excellent. They also pointed out that the curriculum is well designed to carry out teaching practice and extension activities which are of great help in their higher studies and career. Students felt happy and proud to be part of this reputed institute and had high regards for the value system inculcated during the course of their study period in the campus. Students were happy with the infrastructure, library facilities and other services provided with the institute. They cherished the friendly approach of the teachers, which made them very comfortable and relaxed.

Students were feeling proud that they were part of the reputed institute and played their role in an effective manner. They were happy with the infrastructure facility provided by the institute. Reading materials available in library were sufficient. It has improved the skills and knowledge of the students in various disciplines. Teachers were friendly and approachable which made the students more comfortable and they could interact freely.
